Adamski, George      Behind The Flying Saucer Mystery

Paperback Library 1967, paperback, 160pp.

Good to Very Good, given its age and cheapness of production. Shelf-worn, title page has a slight cut, gift note on inside cover - but still holding together well, unlike most copies you find of this one. First Printing as stated on the copyright page.      £10.00 Ref ID: EM005

Bertiaux, Michael      Cosmic Meditation

Fulgur 2007, hardback in slipcase, 86pp, illus.

As New in As New dustjacket and As New slipcase. A beautiful book, signed by the author. Number 19 of 77 copies thus. Colour frontispiece tipped in. An introduction to a way of thinking, Cosmic Meditation explores the universe from the standpoint of the spiritist philosophy. Through a simple, but multi-layered narrative the author guides the reader on an inner journey of exploration, making connections between the metaphysical and spiritist philosophies. The original work was privately printed and appeared in limited numbers nearly thirty years ago. In this new edition the text has been revised, corrected and augmented with a new introduction and many illustrations drawn especially for this edition.      £250.00

Charpentier, Louis      The Mysteries of Chartres Cathedral

Research Into Lost Knowledge Organisation 1975, paperback, 190pp, illus.

Good. First English edition. Highly acclaimed text presents the author's insight into the history and mystery of lost knowledge of the cathedral of Chartres. This book refers back to deep sources of divine knowledge, unveiling answers regarding the manifestation of a secret communicated to mankind by occult or mystical means, which required the services of a man equipped to receive a Dedication in occult language, a man competent to translate the message into numbers and a master craftsman who knew what he was about and could express such numbers or relationships in curves, verticals and volumes. £39.00 Ref ID: EM009

Collins, Andrew            Gods Of Eden

Headline 1998, hardback with dustjacket, 372pp

A careful analysis and assessment, including the latest theoretical approaches. Interesting chapter on Crowley at Loch Ness.     £17.50 Ref ID: EM007

Frater Shiva                Inside Solar Lodge, Behind The Veil

Desert Star Temple 2012, paperback, 314 pp, illus.

Near Fine. First edition. Foreword by Martin P. Starr. This paperbound copy includes the scarce author-signed bookplate usually only seen in the hardbacks. Very scarce.     £85.00 Ref ID: TH001

Gardner, Laurence        Bloodline of the Holy Grail

Element 1996, hardback, 490pp, illus.

Fine in Near Fine (price-clipped) dustjacket. Jesus married Mary Magdalene, and she was pregnant with his child when he was crucified at Qumran, not Golgotha as it is usually thought. Mary delivered a male child before she and her son were spirited out of Palestine to France, where she died. This child became the scion of an amazing genealogy that terminates in the House of Stuart. Furthermore, that house did not expire but flourishes to this day. Still with me? This book is an amazing patchwork of scholarly trappings and dizzying detail, stitched together with myth and fable, until it arrives at the amazing argument that indeed the Crown of England properly belongs to the Line of David through Jesus Christ himself. A surprisingly good read. £23.50 Ref ID: EM004

Harper, Clive                      Revised Notes Towards a Bibliography of Austin Osman Spare

Holmes 1999, stapled booklet, 44pp    As New. Signed by author on title page. Includes some apparent handwritten amendments by author.    £22.00                      Ref ID: TH003
